A CHAPTER FROM THE BOOK OF MEMORIES

A Day at LHS • •

The high school building stands empty and alone in the early morning light. Soon the custodians come to renew the fire in the boilers. Next, the teachers arrive and begin to prepare for the day's activities. Finally, the first bell rings and students pour in, making the halls resound with chatter and gossip, the tread of footsteps, and the banging of locker doors. The tardy bell rings, and all is quiet, but not for long; the activity bell brings clubs and committees hurrying from room to room. First hour follows, and the building relaxes until noon, when the melee resumes. Afternoon classes pass—it's time for teachers' meetings, basketball practice, and committee meetings that didn't quite get finished during activity period. Finally, the students are gone; the teachers and custodians have left. The building stands, once more empty and alone, patiently awaiting the morning.

8:00 A. M.; On the Way • • • •

Lucky Marilyn Jo Lee! She can get a few more winks of sleep or an extra bite of breakfast because she happens to live just across from the Senior High School.

Watch your step! This is one of several conveyances used by our students to get to school.

We come to school many different ways. To some, the building is within easy walking distance, right across the street or down a few blocks. Others drive, or come in by bus. But no matter how we arrive, we look forward to a day of learning and of talking and working with friends.

8:10 A. M.; We've Arrived • • • •

Romances are started, carried on, discussed, and ended; business deals are closed; arguments and discussions go on over everything from politics and the world situation to the latest movie and the girl that just moved to town. Sound interesting? It is, and it all happens in the halls and in front of the lockers before the tardy bell.

The teachers arrive at school early to get their mail, announcements, supplies, etc., to be ready for the rush of students and the classes that will begin in very short order.

8:20 A. M.; Activity Period

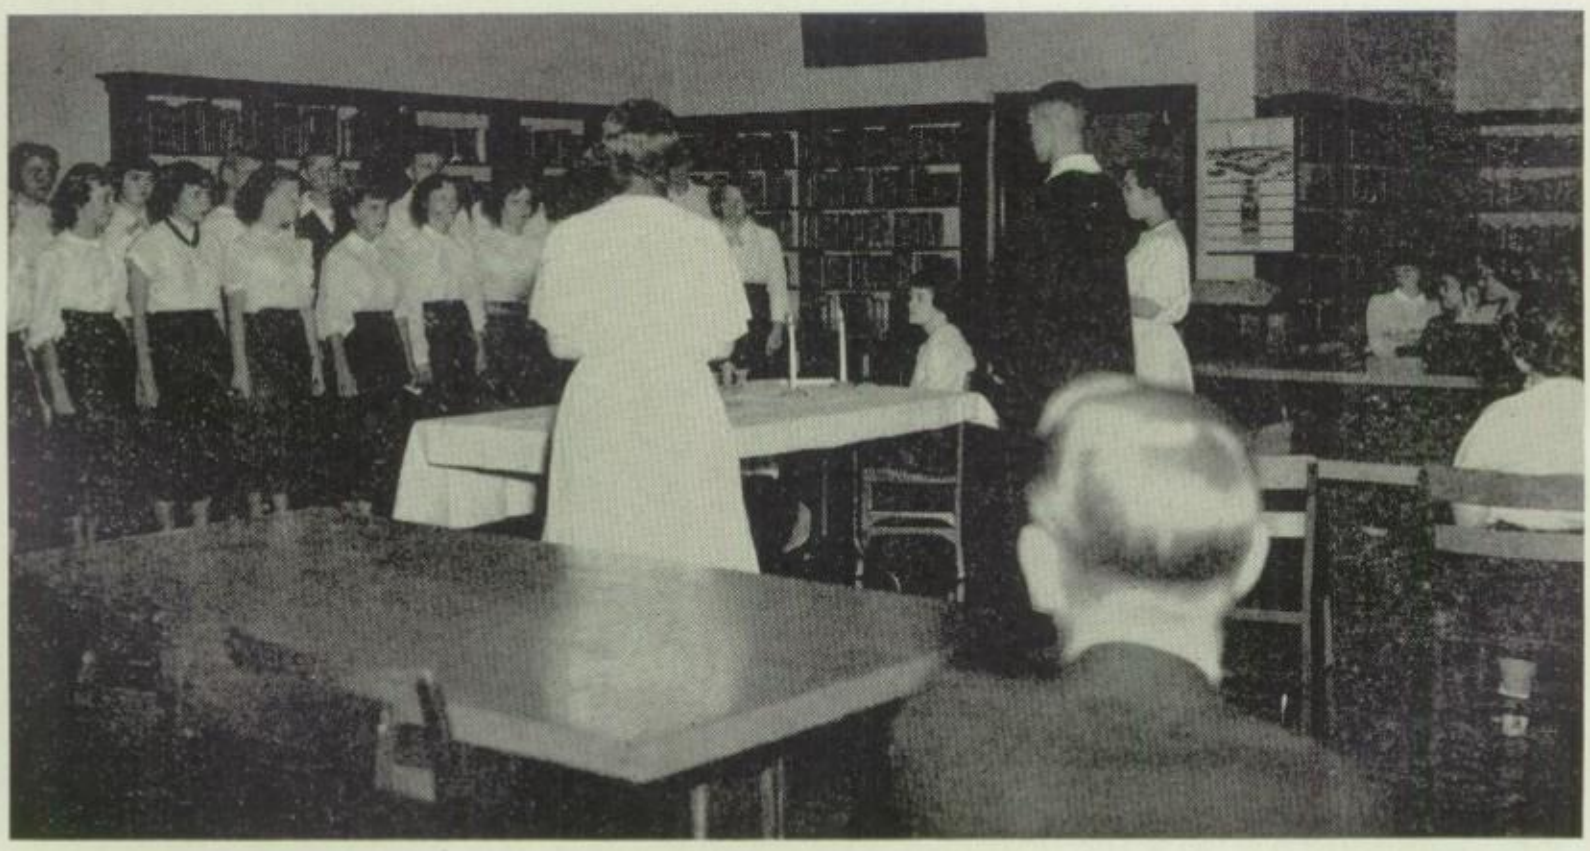
The school day officially begins with activity period. During this half hour: absence lists are made out, club meetings and initiations are held, and committees meet to make important decisions. Also, this is the time for filling in blanks and schedules, buying savings stamps, and voting on various suggestions.

Dorotha Teboe is one of several office assistants who are charged with tabulating and recording all absences.



A Latin Club initiation ceremony is being conducted.

The orchestra, while it does not generally meet for any reason during activity period, is an important organization of LHS and no doubt some of its public appearances were planned and discussed during this important half hour of our school day.

8:55 A. M.; Classes Begin-First Hour

ART CLASS

Rembrandt, Picasso, and Van Gogh had to start somewhere, and they might well have gone farther than they did if they had had a start in an art class like this one. Mrs. Hallagan is the instructor.

8B SCIENCE

The Einsteins and Edisons of tomorrow get an idea of all phases of science to enable them to choose their branch more easily when the time comes. Mr. Davies is holding an oral question and answer session concerning the earth, the sun and the seasons.

WOOD SHOP

They may become big-time carpenters, or they may only repair a back step to their own home, but you can be sure that this training, under the guidance of Mr. West, will come in handy to these students in some way.

9:55 A. M.; Second Hour

TYPING I

No matter what business or profession these students of Miss June Anderson may enter, they will be able to use the skill they are here learning to good advantage.

MECHANICAL DRAWING

Mechanical drawing can be used in everything from architecture to zincography. Future bridges and buildings may easily owe their design to this class, which teaches drawing of plans exactly to scale. Mr. Hemmerle is in charge of this phase of industrial arts.

10:55 A. M.; Third Hour • • • •

BAND

The LHS instrumentalists warm up and practice for their public appearances. Many of Mr. DeBard's pupils will go on to musical careers, started by his instruction.

11:50 A. M.; Lunch Time • • •

Ah-h-h! Time for lunch, and don't think it's not appreciated. The boys, girls, and teachers who don't go home to eat at noon find a meal ready for them at the lunchroom.

12:20 P. M.; Noon Activities

Spinning the records for noon-time dancing and enjoyment are these Boosters, Fletcher Murphy and Bill Perkins.

Back to the gym. It's the LHS Boosters' disc jockey program, filling in the time until the bell with recorded music for dancing. Due to circumstances beyond control, the program had to be interrupted when the playing floor was extended on either end, cutting down on the dancing space.

Mr. "Doc" Heath is the faculty member who supervises this highly enjoyed recreational and gossip hour.

12:50 P. M.; Classes Resume-Fourth Hour

HEALTH AND SAFETY

Health and safety class, instructed by Mr. Heath, teaches the fundamentals of keeping oneself in good running order and the recommended first aid procedure.

SPANISH

Habla usted Espanol? If not, ask someone from Miss Wilson's Spanish class to translate it for you. This class is in keeping wth the idea that Spanish is continually growing in importance as trade and commerce with the Latin American countries increase.

1:50 P. M.; Fifth Hour

CLOTHING I

Miss Spacht helps some of the girls to learn about materials, designs, and techniques in using them. Who knows, maybe one of her students will be setting Paris styles in a few years.

7B MATHEMATICS

Mr. Kincaid is making sure these pupils know the fundamentals they will use in school in chemistry, physics, math, or bookkeeping, and for the rest of their lives in practical problems.

ENGLISH I

Anyone can speak and write, but Mrs. Bowman is seeing that her pupils know how to do so correctly, for a command of language is necessary in all phases of life.

2:00 P. M.; Time Out for Convo

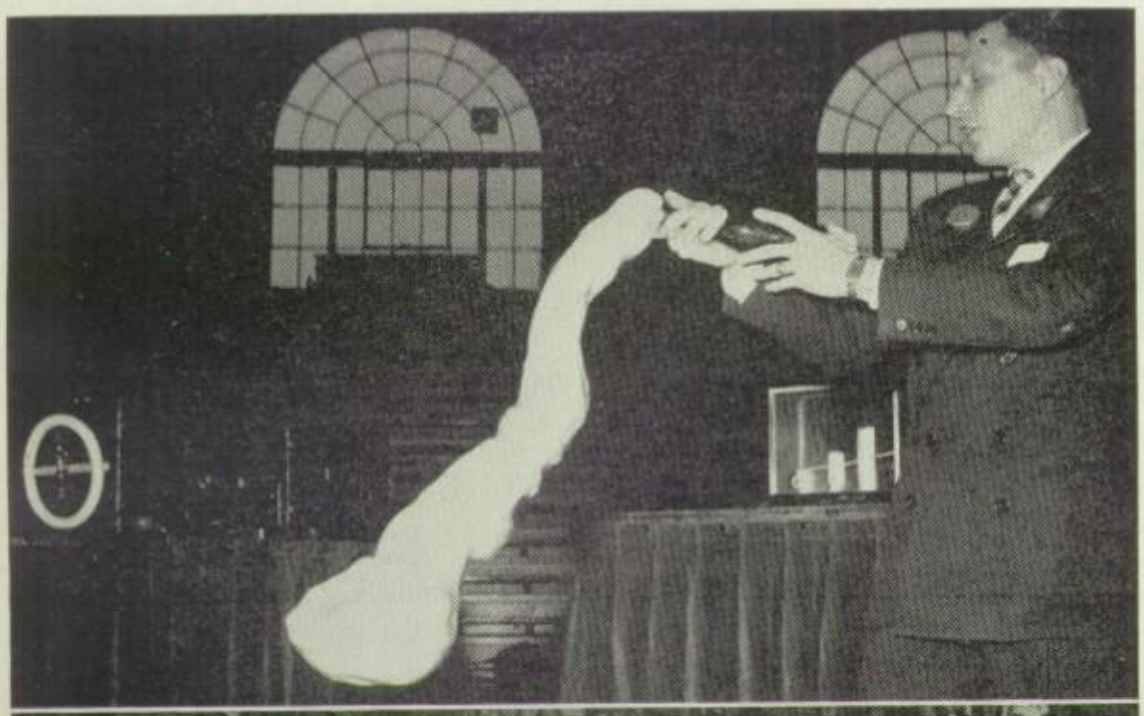
CONVOCATION PROGRAMS

Convocation programs add a necessary variety to the routine of school life. They at once instruct and entertain us. The programs are booked through an agency which supplies many high schools with entertainment of this sort.



A representative of General Motors Corporation demonstrates a marvel of scientific research.

On the left, the student body receives a lesson in balance and control from a pair of experts.

At the right, the LHS yell leaders, Suzie Lenox, Fred Goodnight, and Jean Stoner, are featured in a pep session.

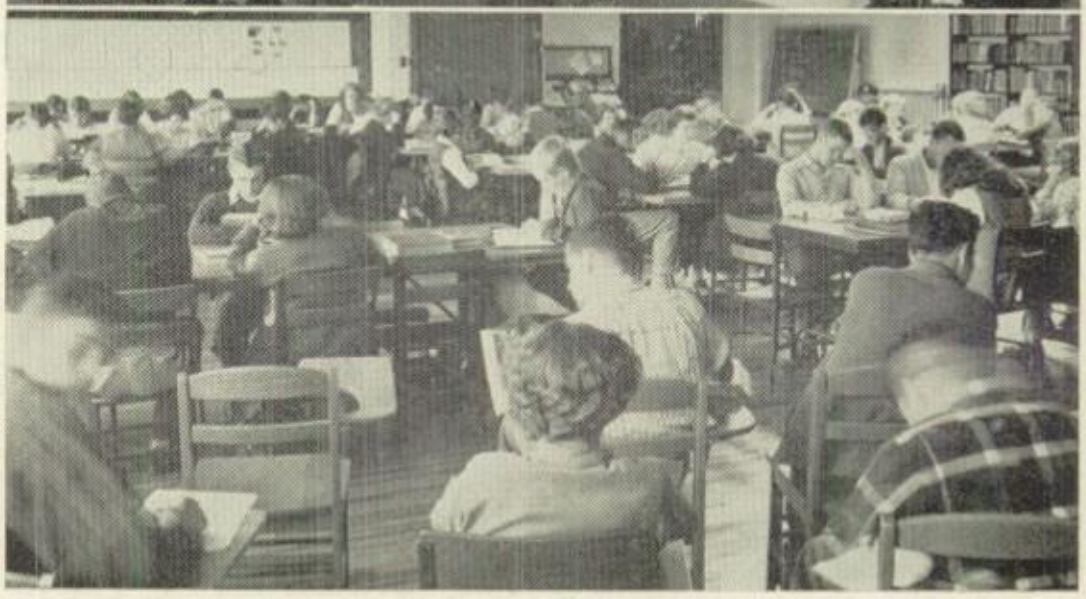
We Have Study Periods Each Hour, Too

JUNIOR HIGH ASSEMBLY

Mr. Maple helps one of the boys in the Junior High Assembly out of a tough spot on an assignment.

LIBRARY

The Senior High Library is quiet as everyone readies the day's lessons.



Study periods in the Assembly and Library give us time to complete our assignments under the supervision of a staff member.

2:50 P. M.; Last Class-Sixth Hour • • • •

GIRLS' PHYSICAL EDUCATION

Physical education classes offer an outlet for normal active energy. Miss Leyman referees a girls' game of soccer in the park.

VOCATIONAL AGRICULTURE

Vocational agriculture gives the farmers of tomorrow a chance to learn the scientific methods for getting the most out of what you have. Mr. Bast conducts the recitation.

CIVICS

All voters should know how their government operates in order to be able to vote intelligently. Mr. Neeves clears up a few points to his civics class.

PRINTING

The freshman boys enrolled in printing, a new course this year, help the school by printing tickets, programs, letterheads, etcetera, while they learn the mechanics as taught by Mr. West.

HOME NURSING

Miss Spacht's home nursing class learns the fundamentals of child care and care for sick members of the family.

3:45 P. M.; School Is Out!

Practice Makes Perfect • • • •

(well, nearly!)

After the final bell has rung, the students leave. They go home, to work, or just downtown to the Sugar Bowl or Wheeler's for a little something and to gossip with the gang.

When everyone else has left, the basketball team is still in the gymnasium practicing. This is where they get the skill and ability that enabled them to score their first win over Frankfort in several years, and to take their second consecutive sectional tourney title under the coaching of Mr. Earl Overman.

Prom Time, 1951 • • • •

Prom Queen-elect Donna Orwig and her Court are heading for the crowning ceremonies.

THE JUNIOR PROM

The Junior Prom is always the big event of the year for the upperclassmen. The Class of '52 made "Stairway to the Stars" their theme and carried it out well with glittering stars shining in the "sky" and with other appropriate decorations.

The Big Moment arrived when Donna Orwig was crowned Queen and everyone passed in review in the Grand March. The dancing then continued until midnight.

Queen Donna and her Court. Let the Grand March begin!

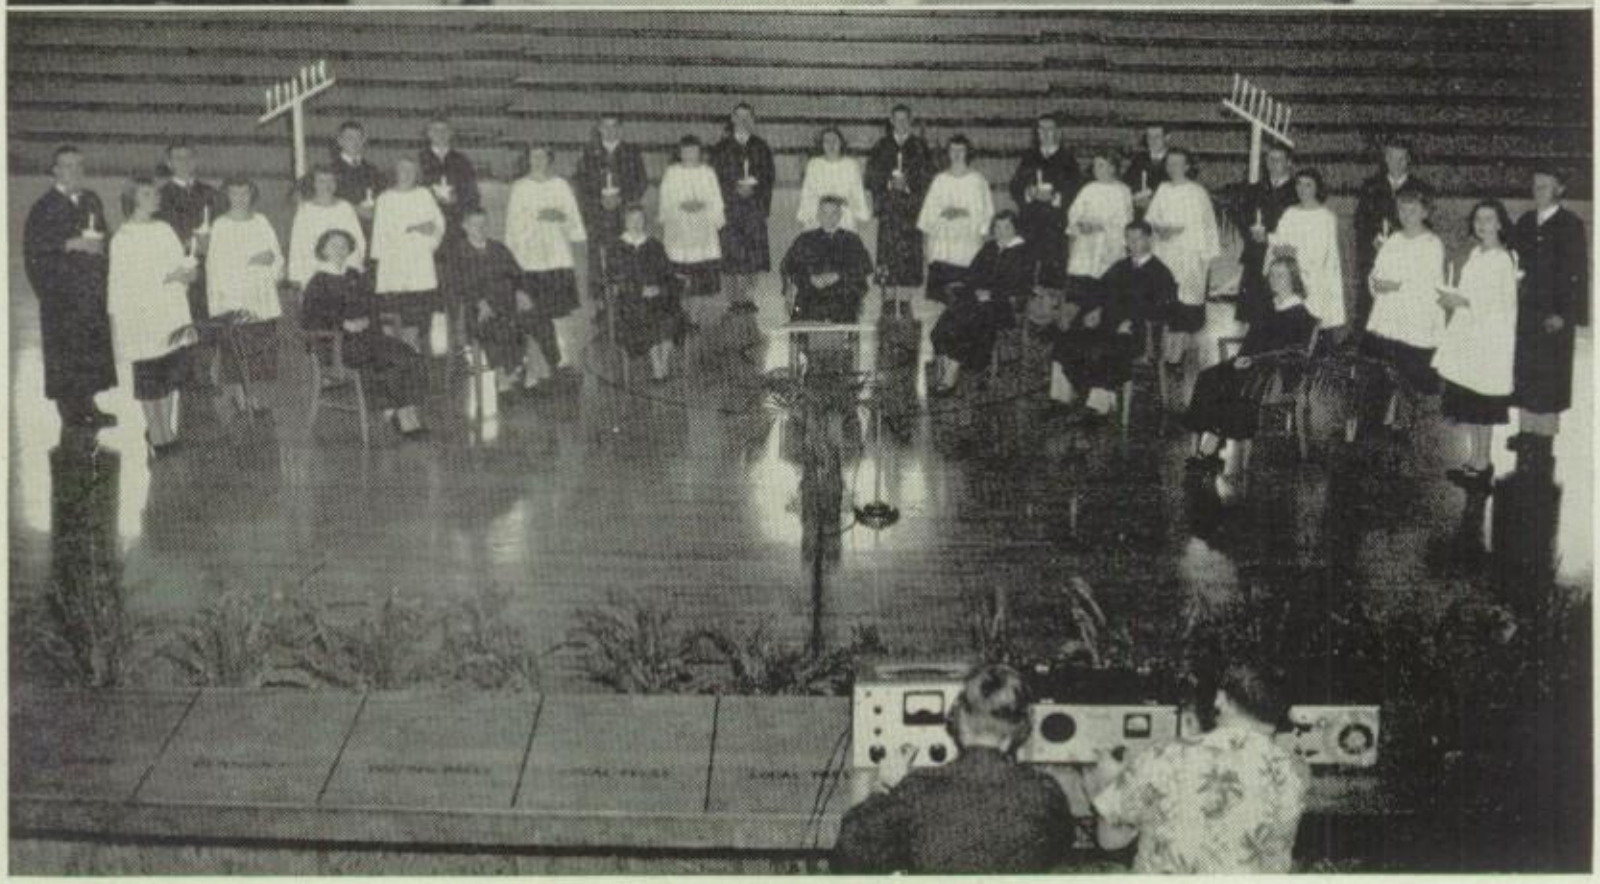
The Grand March draws to a close. There were no students watching this march — everyone participated in the March in honor of the Queen.

And now for more dancing. The Queen has been crowned, the Grand March is ended. Only an hour and a half remains until midnight at which time our Junior Prom becomes history. What a wonderful time we had at the '51 Prom!

More Formal Occasions • • • •

SENIOR DINNER PARTY

The senior dinner party was held this year in the Methodist Church. The theme was "Visions of Tomorrow" and was carried out by several of the class in a skit written for the occasion by Mrs. Fitzhugh Lee. Also on the program was the traditional Candelabrum ceremony.



VESPERS

Thanksgiving Vespers was extended to a wider audience this year. The program for this solemn occasion was tape-recorded by the local FM station, WINL. The processional and recessional were by the orchestra, and vocal music was furnished by the glee club.

"Christmas Comes Again"

CHRISTMAS PROGRAM

The Christmas program was a cooperative effort among the dramatics department, the orchestra, and the glee club. The orchestra, under the baton of Mr. DeBard, and the glee club, led by Miss McNeal, performed between the varied acts put on by Miss Hecker's dramatists.

CHRISTMAS TREE

Decorating the Christmas tree in the Senior High hall is an annual project of the mathematics department and is supervised by Miss Eileen Beckett. Since there was no solid geometry class this year, decorations were made by the plane geometry classes.

The tree in the Junior High building was decorated by the Sunbeam Society.

Yea, Rah, Team! • • • •

BASKETBALL PEP RALLY

The first annual Lebanon basketball pep rally was held before the Jeff game, the first one of the season. Sponsored by the Lebanon Junior Chamber of Commerce, the rally featured a parade of floats, speeches by the mayor and the team, yells, a bonfire and street dancing.

Relaxation and Recreation

SCHOOL MIXERS

Mixers provide a place to go for dancing and entertainment or just to get together with the gang. They are held after basketball or football games, or just when an organization feels like sponsoring one. There is dancing to records or "live" music, and usually a skit or so for variety.

Below are pictured an after-game mixer in the dug-out, skit-watchers, and dancing at the Sunshine Sock Dance held in the gym.

As We See Them • • • •

The men at the left do all the dirty work around school. They keep the buildings clean, neat, and warm by constantly cleaning, replacing broken fixtures, and keeping watch over the heating system.

Segregation? Not exactly. These two informal shots were taken just prior to a faculty meeting. At these meetings individual and group problems arising from classroom and extra-curricular activities are discussed and decisions made.

Games, Dates • • • •

"Hoosier Madness" it's called by some, but we call it basketball and we love it.

After the game, some have dates. They wait on the players who are still dressing, and they get ready to leave.

Where to? There's no mixer tonight, so everyone goes to the Sugar Bowl.

There they discuss the game and things in general over a coke or some ice cream.

1951 May Fest

Flag-raisers conduct the opening ceremony of the 1951 May Fest.

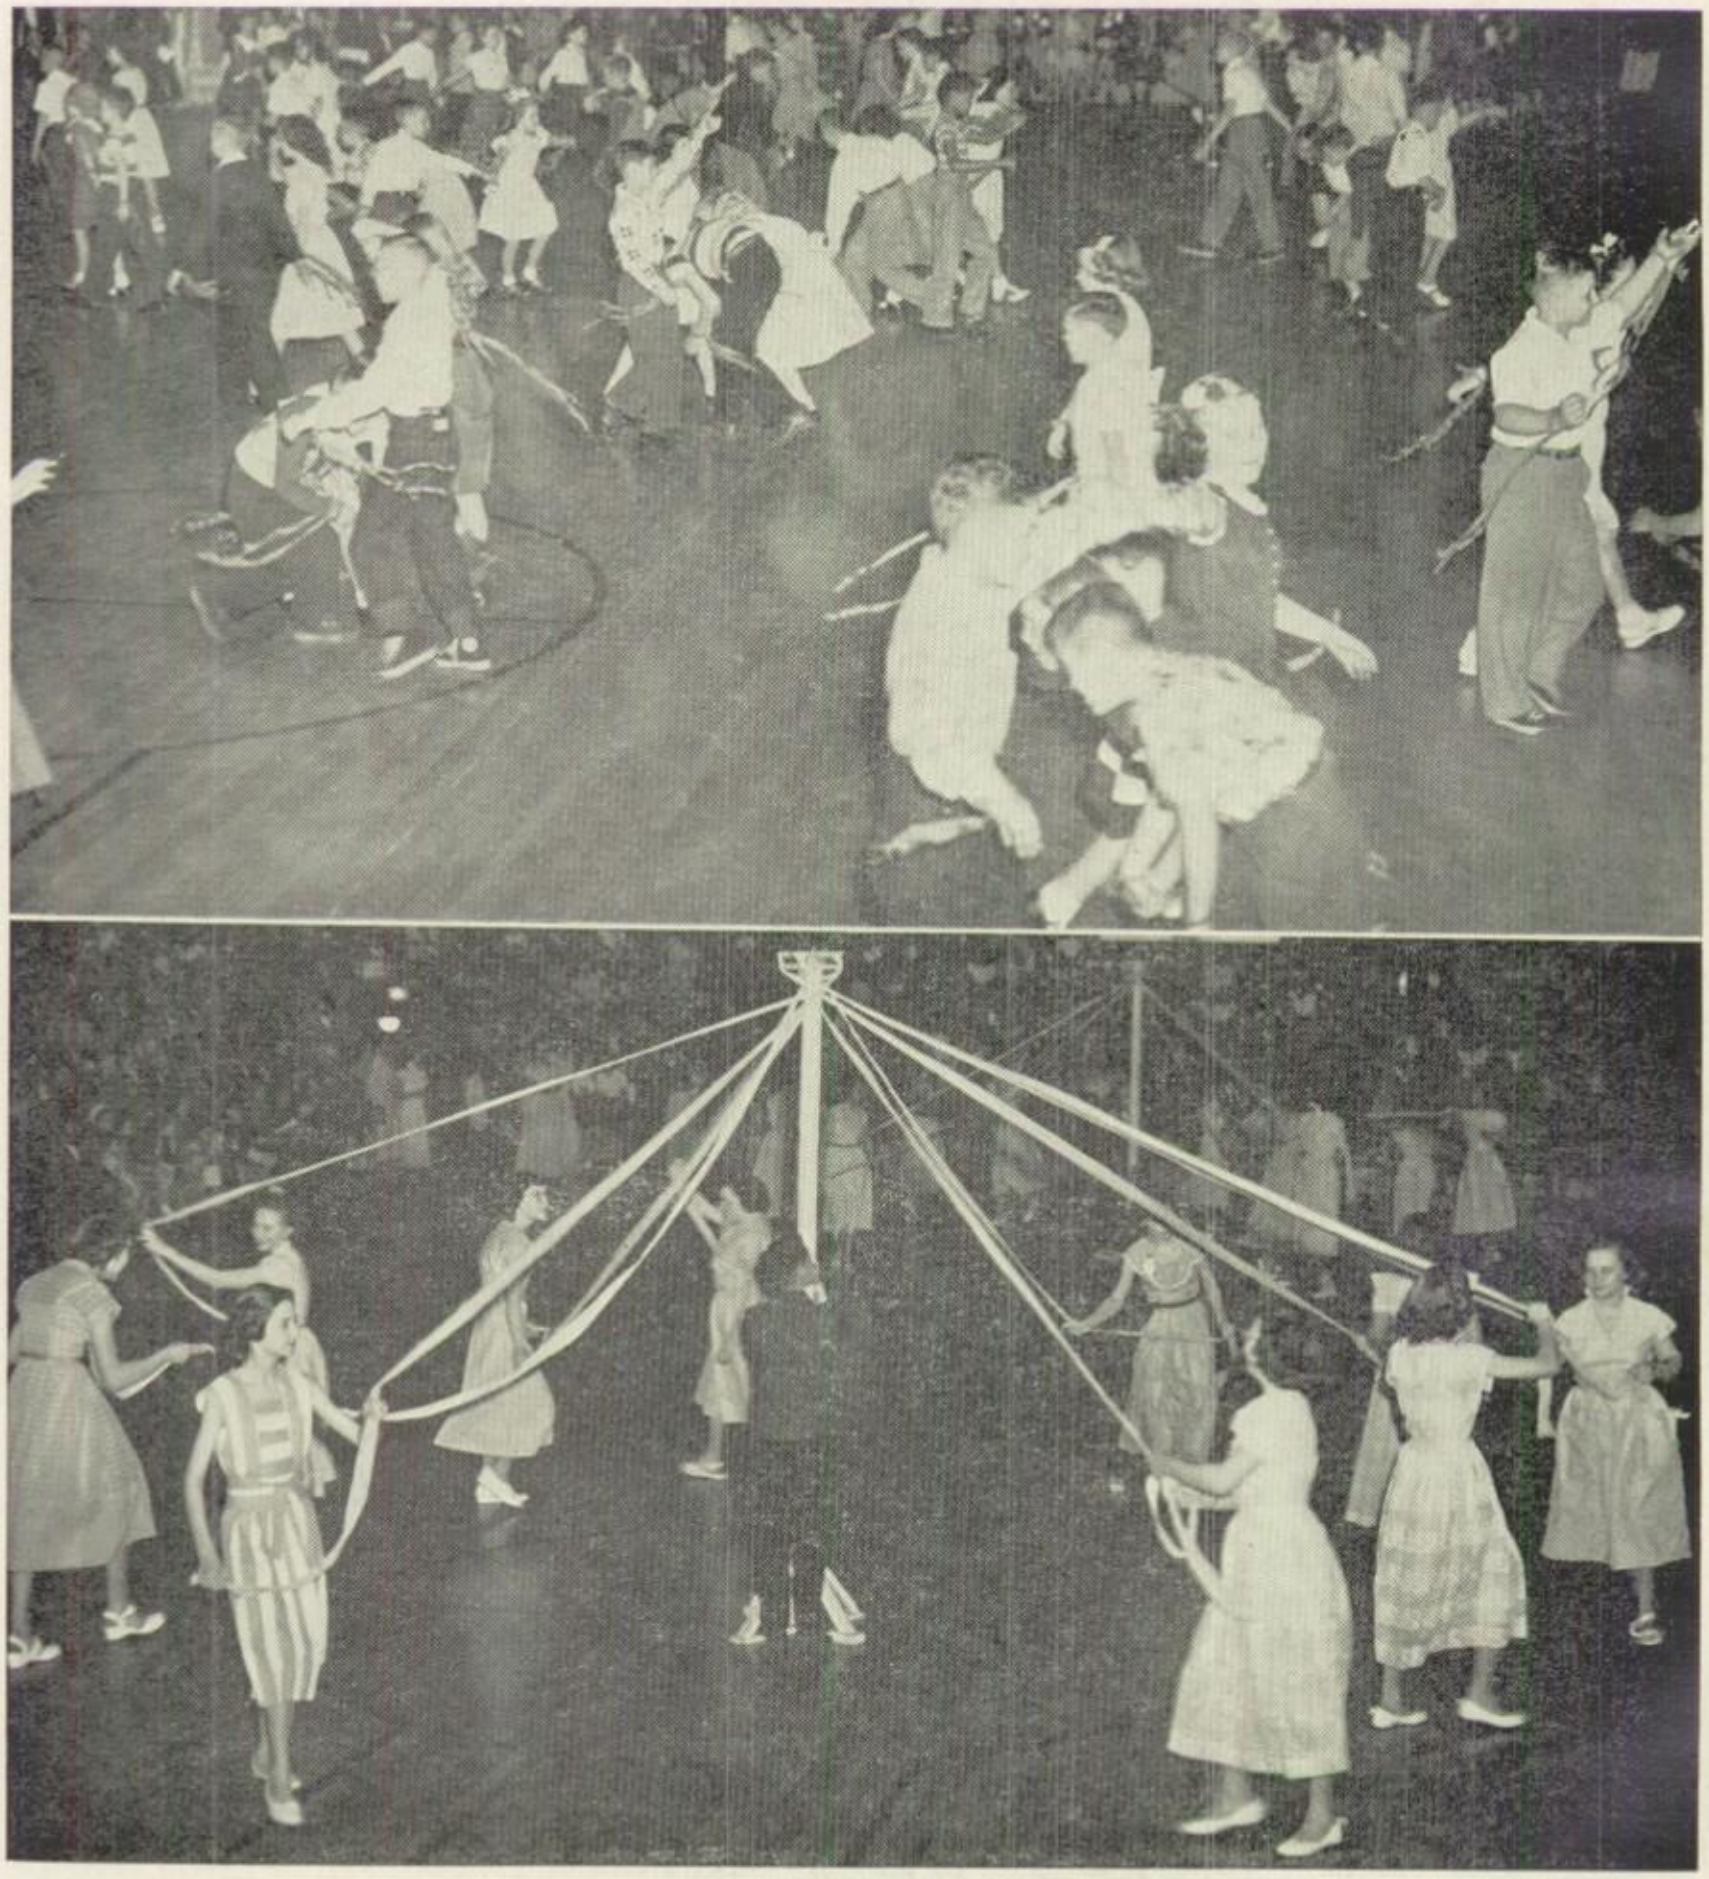
Bill Lewellen crowns May Queen Marcia Peabody.

MAY FEST

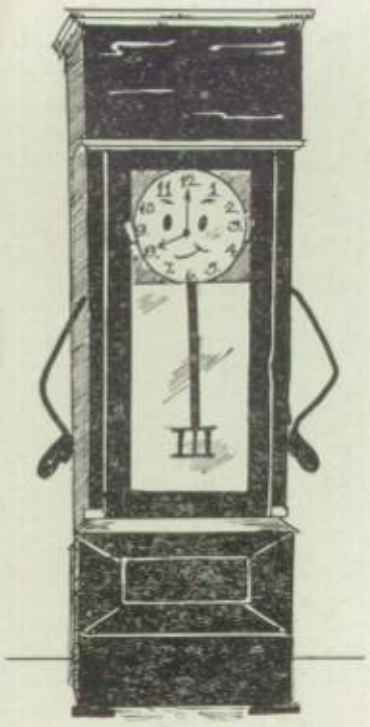
Each year the May Queen and her attendants are chosen from among the freshman girls to reign over the annual festivities held in the gym on May Day.

These festivities open with the flag-raising ceremony and include the crowning of the May Queen, the traditional Maypole Dance, with colored streamers being woven around the Maypole by freshman girls, and the demonstration by the physical education classes, from the first grade through high school, of the games, skills, and calisthenics they have been learning throughout the year.

Miss LaRetha Leyman, physical education supervisor, is the coordinator in charge of the May Fest activities.



Our Friends and Advisors



The following are the people to whom we owe the education behind the diploma we receive at graduation. They are the friends and counsellors who help us to know ourselves and who guide us in getting started in the right direction toward becoming an adult. Any success we attain in later life is due in great measure to their untiring efforts to teach us the basic skills and to make better citizens of us.

We had a change in faculty personnel at the end of the first semester when Mrs. Jane Ward, English and Social Studies teacher, resigned her position at Lebanon to accept a similar position at Lafayette Jefferson High School. Mrs. Ward was replaced by Miss Elizabeth Grimsley, not pictured in this book.

Dedication

Eleven years ago, on December 7, 1941, our country was plunged into war. In the eleven years that have passed since that time, we have grown in the midst of a world filled with confusion and chaos. Through four years of war and through seven years of troubled peace we have seen others graduate before us into uncertainty and discouragement, never knowing the scope of the troubles which were to face them.

It seems as though little has been accomplished in past years to guarantee us security and happiness. But, with typical American courage and determination, we look forward into the future with the hope that someday we will see the realization of our dreams.

To this ideal, A BETTER LIFE IN THE FUTURE, with the materialization of the hopes and the dreams we hold in such high esteem, to this VISION OF TOMORROW, we dedicate this book, The 1952 CEDARS.

Let's Look at the Classes • • • • •

Lebanon Junior-Senior High School has a student body and faculty of well over 700. We are going to pause now and let you get better acquainted with these people.

First, we want you to meet the class that is leaving you to seek fame and fortune elsewhere. We think you should know a little of our background, so, for your enlightenment, we publish for you the . . .

SENIOR CLASS HISTORY

One of the most cherished and memorable events of any person's life is that of graduation. It is the goal every member of our class has been working for since entering high school in 1948. Graduation has descended upon us, the Class of '52, but before becoming alumni of LHS, leaving those who have guided us and parting from the many lasting friendships we have made, let us look back on some class events that we will always remember.

Since no class organization meetings would be held until our Junior year, our first two years were spent in making friends, studying, and dreaming of the day when we would be upperclassmen.

Our class met and organized in the fall of 1950. As Juniors we chose Don Hussong, president; Cecil Kouns, vice-president; and Annabelle Miller, secretary-treasurer. Our sponsors were Miss Patricia O'Day and Mr. James Baugher.

Our Junior Candy-Coke Committee worked especially hard making funds for our project of the year—the Junior-Senior Prom. This event was held April 6, 1951, at the Lebanon Armory. Our theme was "Stairway To The Stars" and the program and decorations carried out the theme. At the top of our silver stairway Donna Orwig reigned as Queen. Throughout the evening refreshments were served by several sophomore girls.

In the fall of 1951 we proudly walked into the gymnasium as Seniors. Our organizational meeting followed shortly after and we elected David Sherry to guide us as president, and to assist him we selected David Shirling, vice-president, and Suzanne Lenox, secretary-treasurer. Our able sponsors were Miss Lillian Witt and Mr. Jewell Kincaid. Our Senior Council was active throughout the year.

Our Senior Dinner Party was held November 2 at the Methodist Church. Here we saw our Candelabrum Committee give their ceremony for the first time, and our theme, "Visions of Tomorrow," gave us a glimpse of what the future might have in store for us.

After Baccalaureate came Commencement. On the night of May 28 we became graduates of LHS.

It is now time for us to use the guidance and knowledge we have gained from our high school to help each of us reach our goals. We know that in years to come there will be many more classes to replace us, but we will always remember our high school—LHS.

All through this book we have been introducing each major section with a full page division picture. We could think of no more appropriate division picture for this edition of the CEDARS than to picture for you the officers, sponsors, and council that administer the affairs of the Class of '52. In this manner we introduce you to the CLASSES OF LHS.

JUNIOR CLASS HISTORY

The Class of '53 met and organized in the fall of 1951 and chose Jim Whitehead, president; Gerald Padgett, vice-president; and Barbara Bischoff, secretary-treasurer. Miss K. Eileen Beckett and Mr. Glenn Maple were chosen sponsors. These officers and sponsors along with the Junior Council led the class wisely throughout the school term.

At the basketball games everyone noticed the hard-working Junior boys and girls who made up the Candy-Coke Committee making funds for the Junior-Senior Prom and other class activities.

The Prom, which was held April 4 at the Lebanon Armory, brought to a close many activities and much hard work on the part of every member of the Junior Class. You, the Class of '53, are now ready to replace us, the graduating class of '52. We wish you all the fun, happiness, and success possible in your senior year at LHS.

Extra-Curricular Activities • • • •

THE SOCIAL SIDE OF LEBANON HIGH SCHOOL . . .

On the following pages are the many extra-curricular organizations to which we belonged. Most of them we joined to learn more about a subject in which we were particularly interested. We were voted into others by our classmates, or by the members of the organization itself. Still others we qualified for by our achievements or because of the qualities we possessed.

No matter how we gained membership, the organizations furnished us with opportunities to work together with our classmates, to serve others and to pursue our special interests further than is possible in a classroom.

Seated: Shirley McGrigg and Jim Seeright, co-editors.

CEDARS STAFF

The CEDARS staff begins its work on the first day of school selling ads to try to make the yearbook self-supporting. From then until the day the CEDARS copies are distributed, the staff is at work writing copy, pasting the dummy, and making picture identifications.

Under the direction of Mr. Guilford, the sponsor, they compete with former staffs to try to put out the best yearbook Lebanon High School has ever had.

CANDELABRUM COMMITTEE

The Candelabrum Committee is chosen by a vote of the Senior Class to carry on the ceremony initiated by Miss Lydia Bell in 1929. Traditionally, this ceremony takes place whenever the Senior Class has a class activity, such as the Dinner Party and Commencement.

Members of the committee are chosen for their speaking ability, poise, and dependability. The ceremony, with the seven-branched candlestick, represents the seven cardinal principles of secondary education.

SENIOR NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY

Each spring about five per cent of the Junior Class are chosen on a basis of character, scholarship, leadership, and service to be members of the National Honor Society. Among other activities, the Society this year contributed to the Red Cross Overseas Box. Members also operate the honor desk in the main hall. Officers this year were Jim Seeright, President; Mina Baker, Vice-president; and Mary Helen Billingsly, Secretary-treasurer. Miss Lillian Witt is the sponsor.

JUNIOR NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY

With membership on the same basis as in the Senior National Honor Society, the Junior Honor Society sponsors the spelling contest and the attendance award given on Honor Day. This group also has a supply desk located in the Junior High hall. Officers are Bob King, President; Mildred Hiland, Vice-president; and Jane Wiseheart, Secretary. Mrs. Drubelle Stephenson is the sponsor.

CANDY AND COKE COMMITTEE

STUDENT OPERATORS

These are the backbone of the visual aids department. Trained by sponsor Mr. Will Davies they make possible, by running the projectors, the film strips and movies which illustrate and clarify our studies.

SENIOR HIGH OFFICE ASSISTANTS

The people you see scurrying through the halls after the bell has rung aren't always tardy—sometimes they're office assistants. These are the girls who keep the machinery of LHS oiled by typing announcements, collecting absences, and making themselves useful doing many other little jobs.

Seated: Suzie Lenox; Judy Corbly; Rose Miller; and Mary Helen Billingsly.

Seated: Judy Heath; Anita King.

JUNIOR HIGH OFFICE ASSISTANTS

The Junior High office assistants help Assistant Principal Mrs. Drubelle Stephenson keep that part of our school running in much the same way as the ones in Senior High do. They answer the telephone, take absences, run errands, and make themselves generally useful around the Junior High building.

LIBRARY CLUB

The Library Club, under the sponsorship of Miss Ruth McLaughlin, is a large organization that encourages students to read books for enjoyment and knowledge. In line with the purpose of this club, one of its regular meetings was spent in visiting the Lebanon Public Library. The club sends representatives to the district and state library conventions.

Officers are Elizabeth Hawkins, president; Barbara Bischoff, vice-president; Nancy McKinney, secretary; and Don Lambert, treasurer.

LIBRARY ASSISTANTS

Miss McLaughlin's assistants in the Junior and Senior High libraries are indispensable to the proper functioning of the libraries. They keep the books in their correct places on the shelves, paste the slips and pockets in the new books, keep track of what books are due when, and repair worn or torn books.

SUNSHINE COUNCIL

The Senior Sunshine Society, a service organization, operates by committees. Co-sponsors are Miss June Anderson, Mrs. Pauline Sumpter, Miss Mary Ann Tauer, and Miss Helen Wilson. The officers of the club, along with the chairmen of the committees make up the Sunshine Council. This year, following the program of "The Sunshine Armada", the Society collected comics for soldiers, distributed Christmas baskets, and performed many other services for the school and community.

Officers this year are Annabelle Miller, president; Jodean Neal, vice-president; Jane McDonald, secretary; and Blanche Booth, treasurer.

JUNIOR HISTORICAL SOCIETY

One of the younger groups in LHS the Society brought notice to the school when the local president, Jim Seeright, was chosen vice-president of the northern district of the State Junior Historical Society. The Society was active this year with two socials, a fall box supper and a spring get-together.

Helping president Jim Seeright were Gene White, vice-president; Barbara Paxson, secretary; and Mina Baker, treasurer. Co-sponsors are Miss Lillian Witt and Mr. Glen Neeves.

THESPIANS

Under the coaching and sponsorship of Miss Margaret Hecker, the dramatics teacher, the Thespians gave three programs for the school during the year, in addition to outside engagements for churches, clubs, and radio. To qualify as a Thespian, one has to have ten hours of theatrical work outside of school to his credit.

Officers are Judy Corbly, president; Elizabeth Hawkins, vice-president; Peggy Lindley, secretary; and Pat McKinney, treasurer.

BOOSTERS CLUB

These five juniors and five seniors, sponsored by Mr. William S. "Doc" Heath, are the first to be called on whenever a job needs doing. They run the public address system, act as ushers and ropeholders at basketball games, and run endless errands required throughout the school.

Heading this group are Jim Seeright, president; Tom Budd, vice-president; and Dave Budd, secretary.

G. A. A.

The Girls' Athletic Association, sponsored by Miss LaRetha Leyman, gives the girls of Lebanon High School an opportunity for wholesome physical activity and use of leisure time through participation in different sports. In contests with organizations from other schools, they learn the importance of the team spirit and sportsmanship which help to build a better LHS.

Administrative affairs are handled by Barbara Paxson, president; Paula Voorhis, vice-president; Marcia Peabody, secretary; and Ruth Ann Perkins, treasurer.

HI-Y

The Hi-Y is a boys' organization affiliated with the State YMCA. Among the year's activities is the conducting of the election for the annual Courtesy-Character Award, given each year to the boy and girl who are voted by the students as highest in these traits. The HI-Y members also act as ropeholders and ushers at basketball games.

This year's leaders of this organization are Wyman Dickerson, president; Don Hussong, vice-president; John Flynn, secretary; and Jim Schulemire, treasurer. The co-sponsors are Mr. Glenn Maple and Mr. Glen Neeves.

L CLUB

All boys entitled to wear an athletic letter from participating in or acting as manager for any sport form the L Club. This includes players and managers from football, basketball, baseball, and track. In every season and in every sport the members of this club make the "L" they wear respected by all the teams they play.

President of the club is John Linn; Dave Sherry is the vice-president; Dave Shirling is the secretary-treasurer. Coaches Al Crawford and Earl Overman co-sponsor the organization.

F. H. A.

With the idea of looking ahead, the Future Homemakers of America, under the co-sponsorship of Miss Patricia O'Day and Miss Elizabeth Spacht, are preparing for the time when they will have to set up housekeeping on their own. This club, along with the Senior Sunshine Society, sponsors the annual Mothers' Tea held in the gym each spring.

Club officers include Carol Greene, president; Donna Orwig, vice-president; and Sue Carolyn Wells, secretary.

F. F. A.

Through this organization the Future Farmers of America learn by actual experience various different phases and methods of farming and learn to judge their own and others' products. Besides the vocational projects, they hold several social functions throughout the year, including trips, hayrides, and wiener roasts.

Sponsored by Mr. Richard Bast, the club officers are Jim Whitehead, president; Gerald Padgett, vice-president; Jim Powell, secretary; Dick Jarrett, treasurer; Dean Gwin, reporter; and Duane Collier, sentinel.

Annabelle Miller

DAR AWARD

The Senior Class holds a primary election for the DAR Good Citizen Award. From among the three girls receiving the most senior votes, the faculty then chooses the local winner. Our representative, Annabelle Miller, then competed with six other county representatives and again she took top honors, thus making her Lebanon's second consecutive county winner.

BOYS' AND GIRLS' STATE REPRESENTATIVES

The Boys' and Girls' State representatives are chosen by their respective parts of the Junior Class. This project is sponsored each summer by the American Legion and the American Legion Auxiliary. The representatives are "citizens" of a model state, which is patterned after Indiana, and is divided into counties and cities. These "citizens" thus get a first-hand knowledge of our state, county, and local forms of government and of the politics that are a basic part of the democratic way of life.

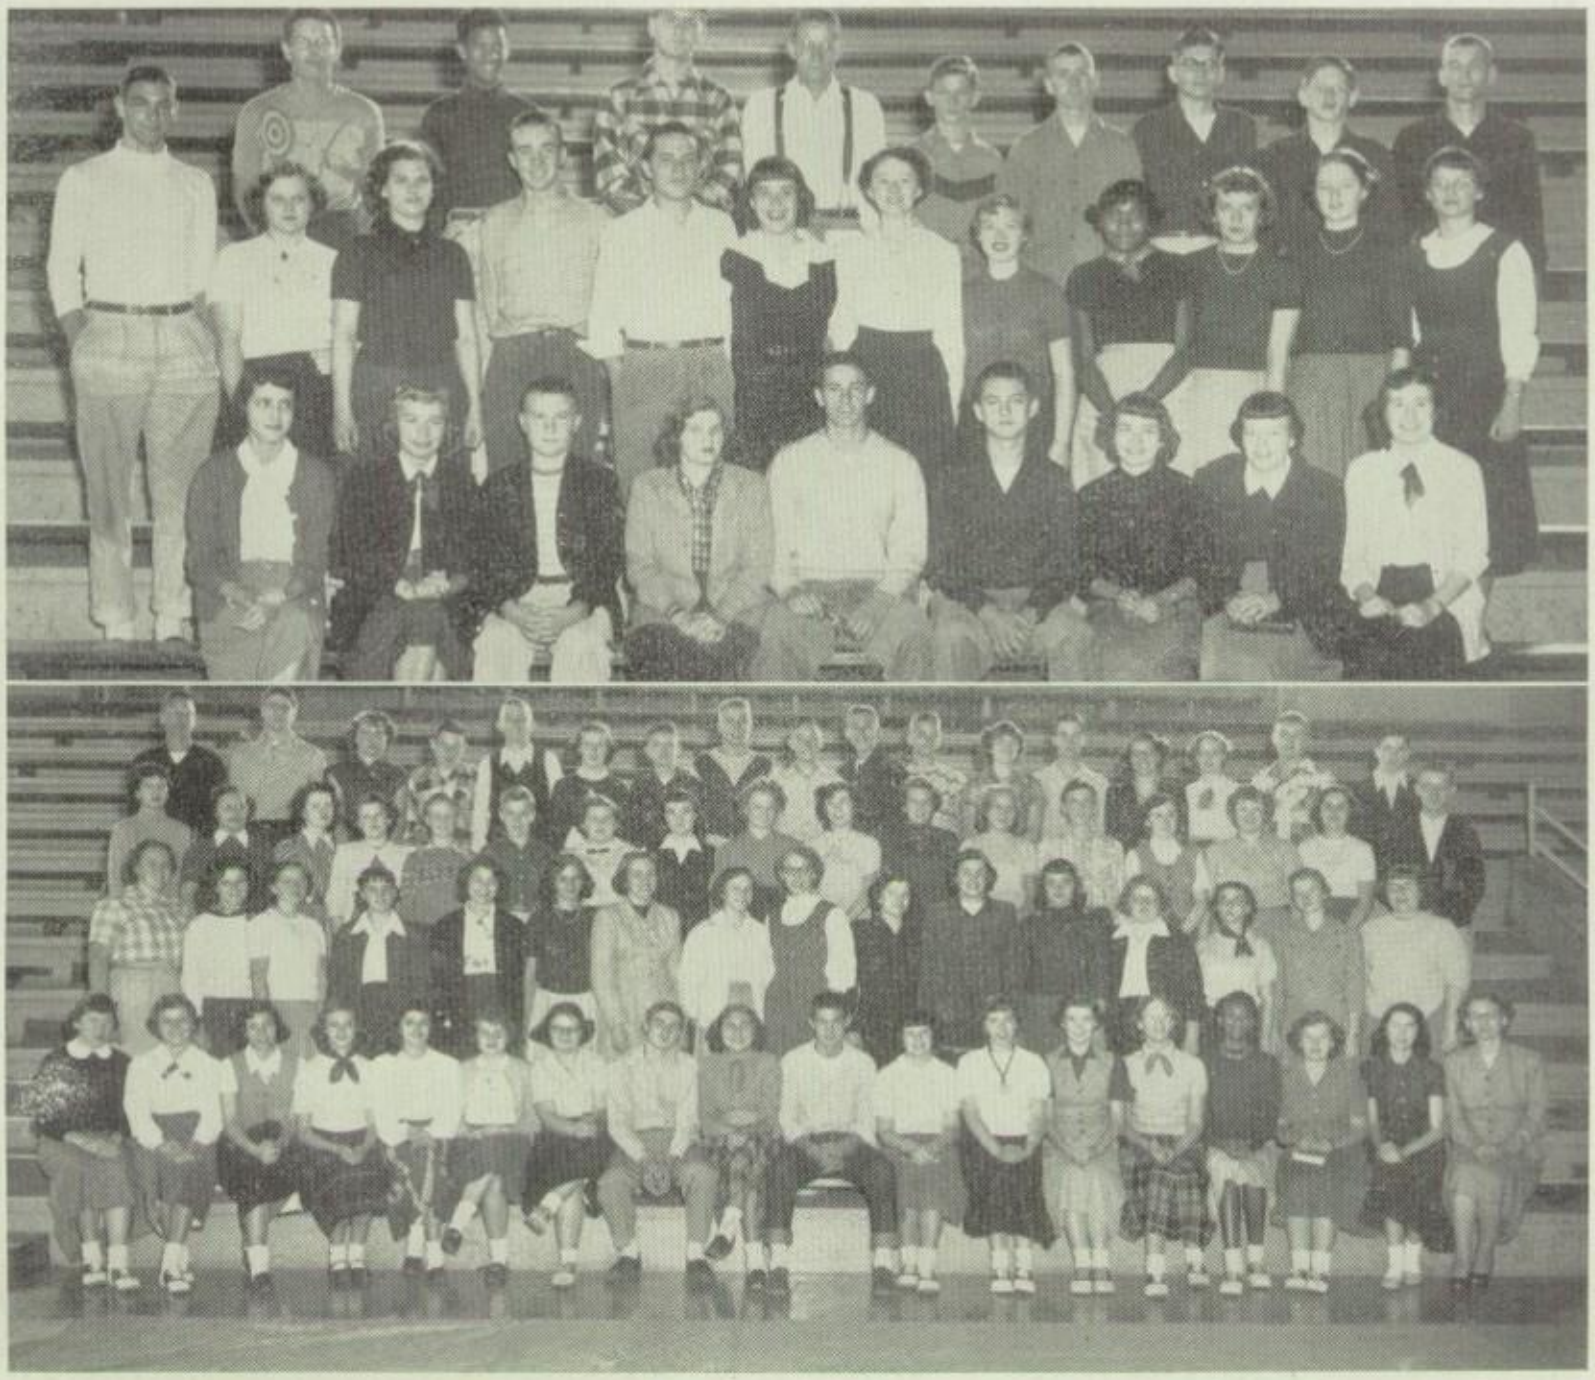
SPANISH CLUB

Under the sponsorship of the Spanish teacher, Miss Helen Wilson, La Alianza Hispanica promotes interest in the language and customs of our neighbors to the south, the Latin-Americans.

Officers for the club are Gene Fine, president; Alan Kincaid and Tom Budd, vice-presidents; and Donnagene Neal, secretary-treasurer.



LATIN CLUB

The Latin Club, sponsored by Mrs. Pauline Sumpter, is an organization of first and second year Latin students and those who have taken two years of Latin. Their meetings featured speakers who stressed the importance of a knowledge of this subject.

Latin Club officers are Don Lambert, First Consul; Nancy Morton, Second Consul; Jane McDonald, Aedile; Chell Fogle, Quaestor; Joe Kashner, Tribunus Populi; Gene White, Jr. Repre-
Shirley McGrigg, Sr. Representative.

JUNIOR SCIENCE CLUB

The Junior Science Club is, as the name implies, for the development of interest in the various branches of science. The co-sponsors of the group are Mr. Glenn Maple and Mr. Will Davies. In the club meetings throughout the year the members saw films and heard speakers on subjects relating in different ways to the theme of science.

Club officials are Joe Kashner, president; Jane Wiseheart, vice-president; and Don Merriott, secretary-treasurer.

COMMERCIAL CLUB

Co-sponsored by Miss June Anderson and Mr. Don Guilford, the Commercial Club is composed of juniors and seniors enrolled in three or more subjects in the Commercial Department. These future typists, stenographers, secretaries, bookkeepers and executives heard fine talks from outstanding civic and business leaders in and around Lebanon. The club sponsors a mixer each year and presents money awards on Honor Day to outstanding business students.

Executives of the club are Bob Shinn, president; Charlotte Denger, vice-president; Nancy Dillon, secretary; and Helen Dillon Smith, treasurer.

TWIRLERS

You need no introduction to these girls if you've ever been to a basketball game. With tricky routines, lighted batons, double-baton twirling, and flag twirling they keep us well entertained when the game isn't going on.

BAND

When we need pep and spirit at basketball and football games, these musicians are there in their new blue and red uniforms to supply peppy and spirited marches, popular songs, and school songs. Directed by Mr. Lester DeBard, they also give two concerts a year and one band convocation in addition to playing for various civic functions.

Officers of this organization are John Jeffs, president; Kenneth Sherrill, vice-president; Ann Spurr, secretary; and Joe Kashner, treasurer.

CONCERT CHOIR

The Concert Choir is composed of voices selected from the Glee Club to give performances when the size of the larger group makes it impractical to use. In charge of this group is Miss Alma McNeal, instructor of vocal music. Serenading at Christmas time is one of the functions of this excellent organization.

GLEE CLUB

The basic vocal organization of LHS is the Glee Club. It is instructed and directed by Miss Alma McNeal. The Glee Club sang at the Thanksgiving Vespers and again at the Christmas program held in the gym. Selected voices sang with other schools to compose a 300-voice organization which performed in Purdue's Hall of Music as part of the program at the Purdue City Teachers Conference.

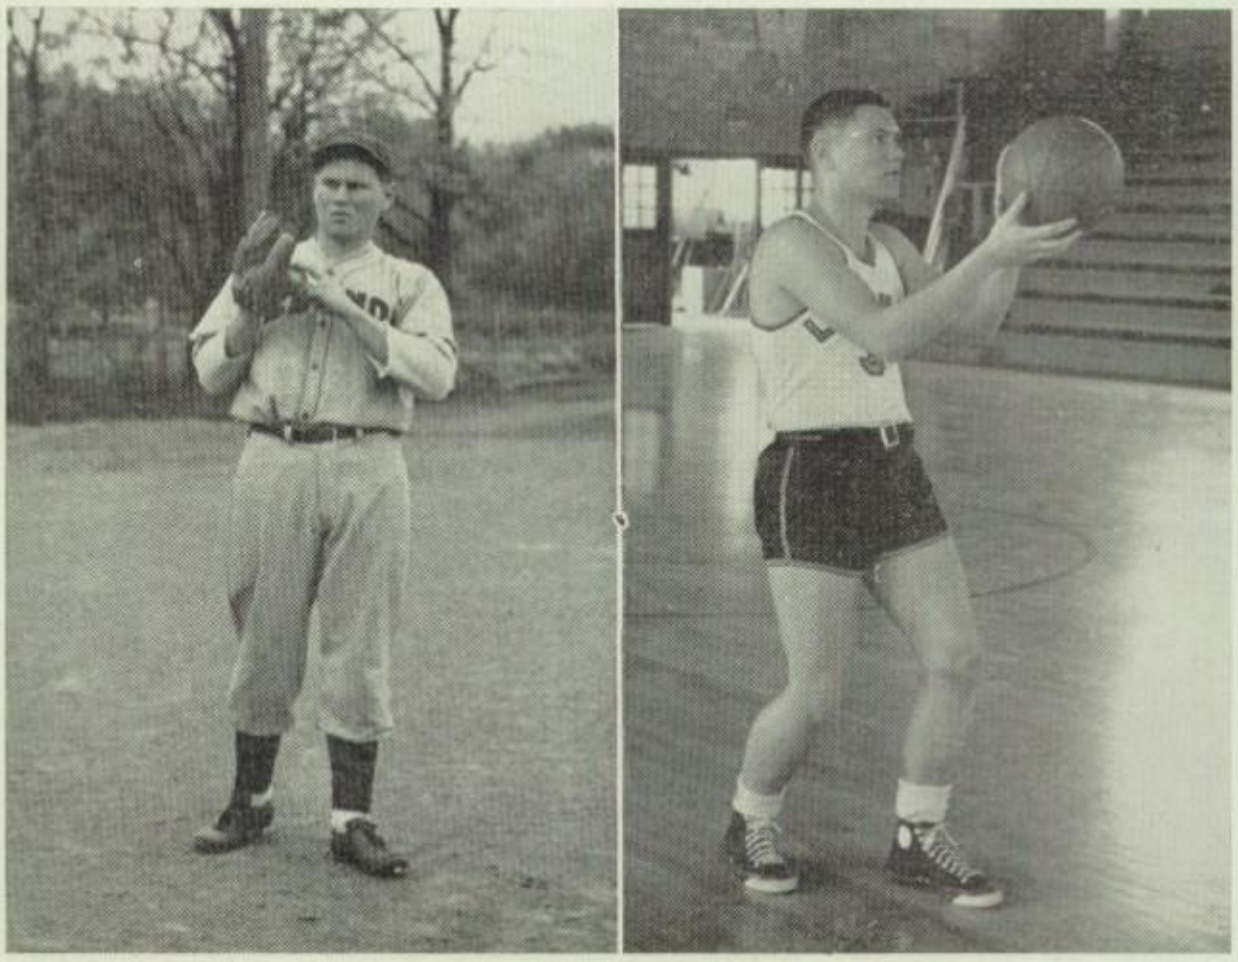
WILLIAM "BILL" LEWELLEN

Let us pause just a few moments in memory of Bill Lewellen, Class of '51, who lost his life last summer on a construction job.

Bill's personality and his basketball and baseball achievements made him a popular favorite with LHS students. We shall remember him as we knew him at Lebanon High.



ATHLETICS

One of the most important phases in the life of any school is the sports program. Ball games and track meets give everyone a chance to work off steam, if not in participation, then in rooting for the home team and boosting them all the way. Competition with other schools helps build a spirit of cooperation and a pride in the fact that we are students of Lebanon High School.

At the right it appears that Coaches Earl Overman, Doc Heath, and Al Crawford are enjoying a good laugh at Doc's expense.

ATHLETIC BOARD OF CONTROL

This athletic administrative body sets the policies by which our varied sports program is governed. The prices of tickets and season books for football and basketball are determined by the Athletic Board, and, following the seasons involved, the recommendations of the coaches for sweater and chevron winners are considered and passed upon.

Officers of this group are Steve Scott, president; Sonny Walker, vice-president; and Shirley McGrigg, secretary.

ATHLETIC MANAGERS

Where is a clean towel? Put something on this sore leg. These are familiar sounds to our stalwart managers who receive little praise for their bit in boosting Lebanon teams to glory. They all have spent many hours cleaning locker rooms and carrying equipment for our muscular athletes. Praise to them; they have earned their letters well.

CHEER LEADERS

Fight! Fight! Fight! All faithful football and basketball fans have heard this plea many times this past year. Our three yell leaders have practiced long and hard to originate yells that would boost the spirits of the team.

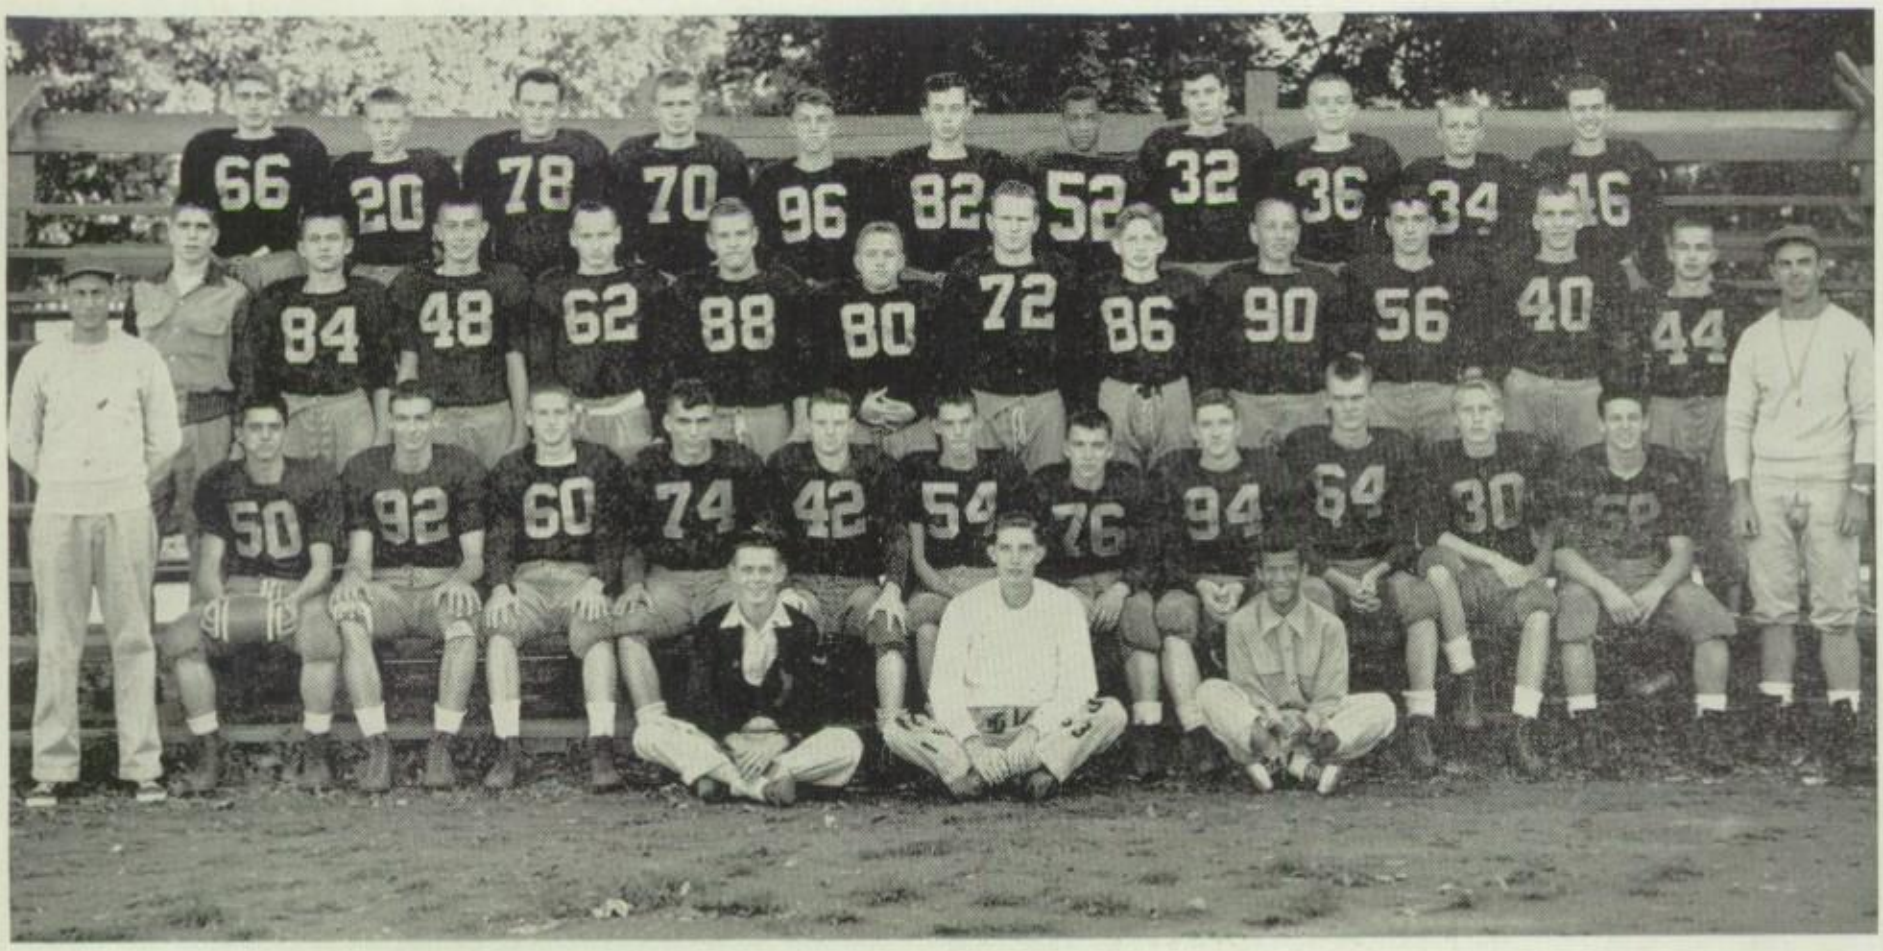
New opponents added to the Tigers' '52 schedule include Crawfordsville, Anderson, and Kirklin. Let's go, Tigers!



FRESHMAN FOOTBALL

Interest in Lebanon High School football was high this year as may be assumed by studying the group pictures on these two pages. In addition to the 33-man varsity squad, LHS had a 25-man Freshman squad. This group was instructed by Assistant Football Coach Earl Overman.

The rhinies defeated Frankfort by a sizable margin but were bested by Noblesville's "B" squad. Freshmen Gary Scott and Joe Kashner also were members of the varsity.

With all of the potential talent shown in these two squads, Lebanon is definitely going to be a football power to contend with in the next year or so.

Middle row: Joe Kashner, Bert McIntyre, Don Merriott, Jerry Acton, Kay Owens, Jack Read, Dick St. Peter, Bob King, Jim Neal, and Gary Scott.

VARSITY FOOTBALL

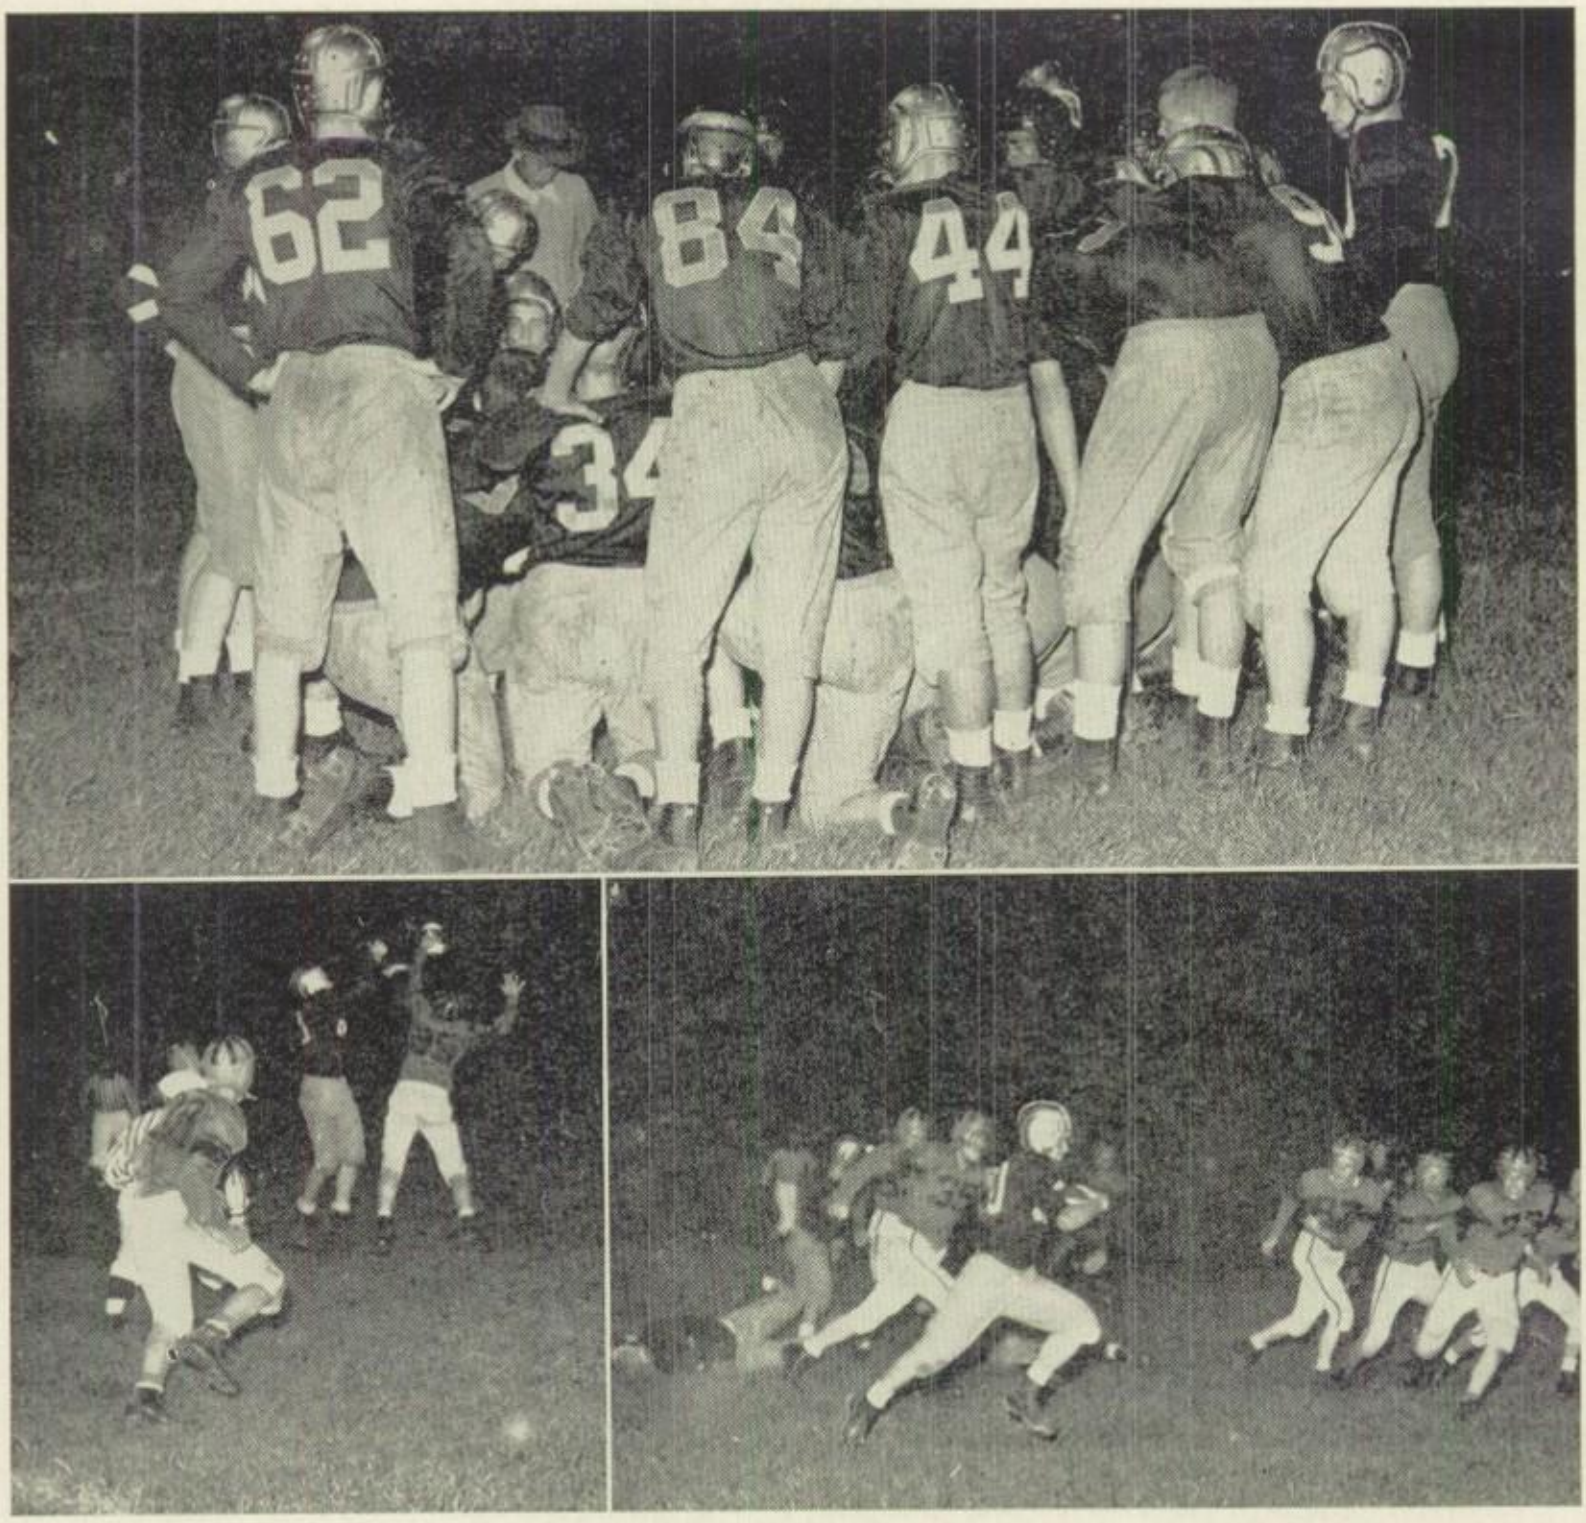
The Tiger football team, fortified with many returning veterans from the previous year, started the 1951-52 school year off with a bang by coming through with a winning season. Our Tigers, in their second football campaign, compiled a record of five wins and three losses. Since we lose only eight seniors from the '51 squad, Lebanon has high hopes that our '52 team will do as well as or even better than their predecessors, although we expect our opposition to be much improved, also.

Coach Al Crawford's footballers were led by triple-threat, captain-quarterback Sonny Walker. Walker, who could well be called "Slingin' Sonny", threw five touchdown passes, scored three himself, completed forty-eight per cent of his attempted passes, averaged 4.9 yards per carry and was a fine punter. In the final two games of the season, Sonny completed sixteen of his last nineteen passes attempted.

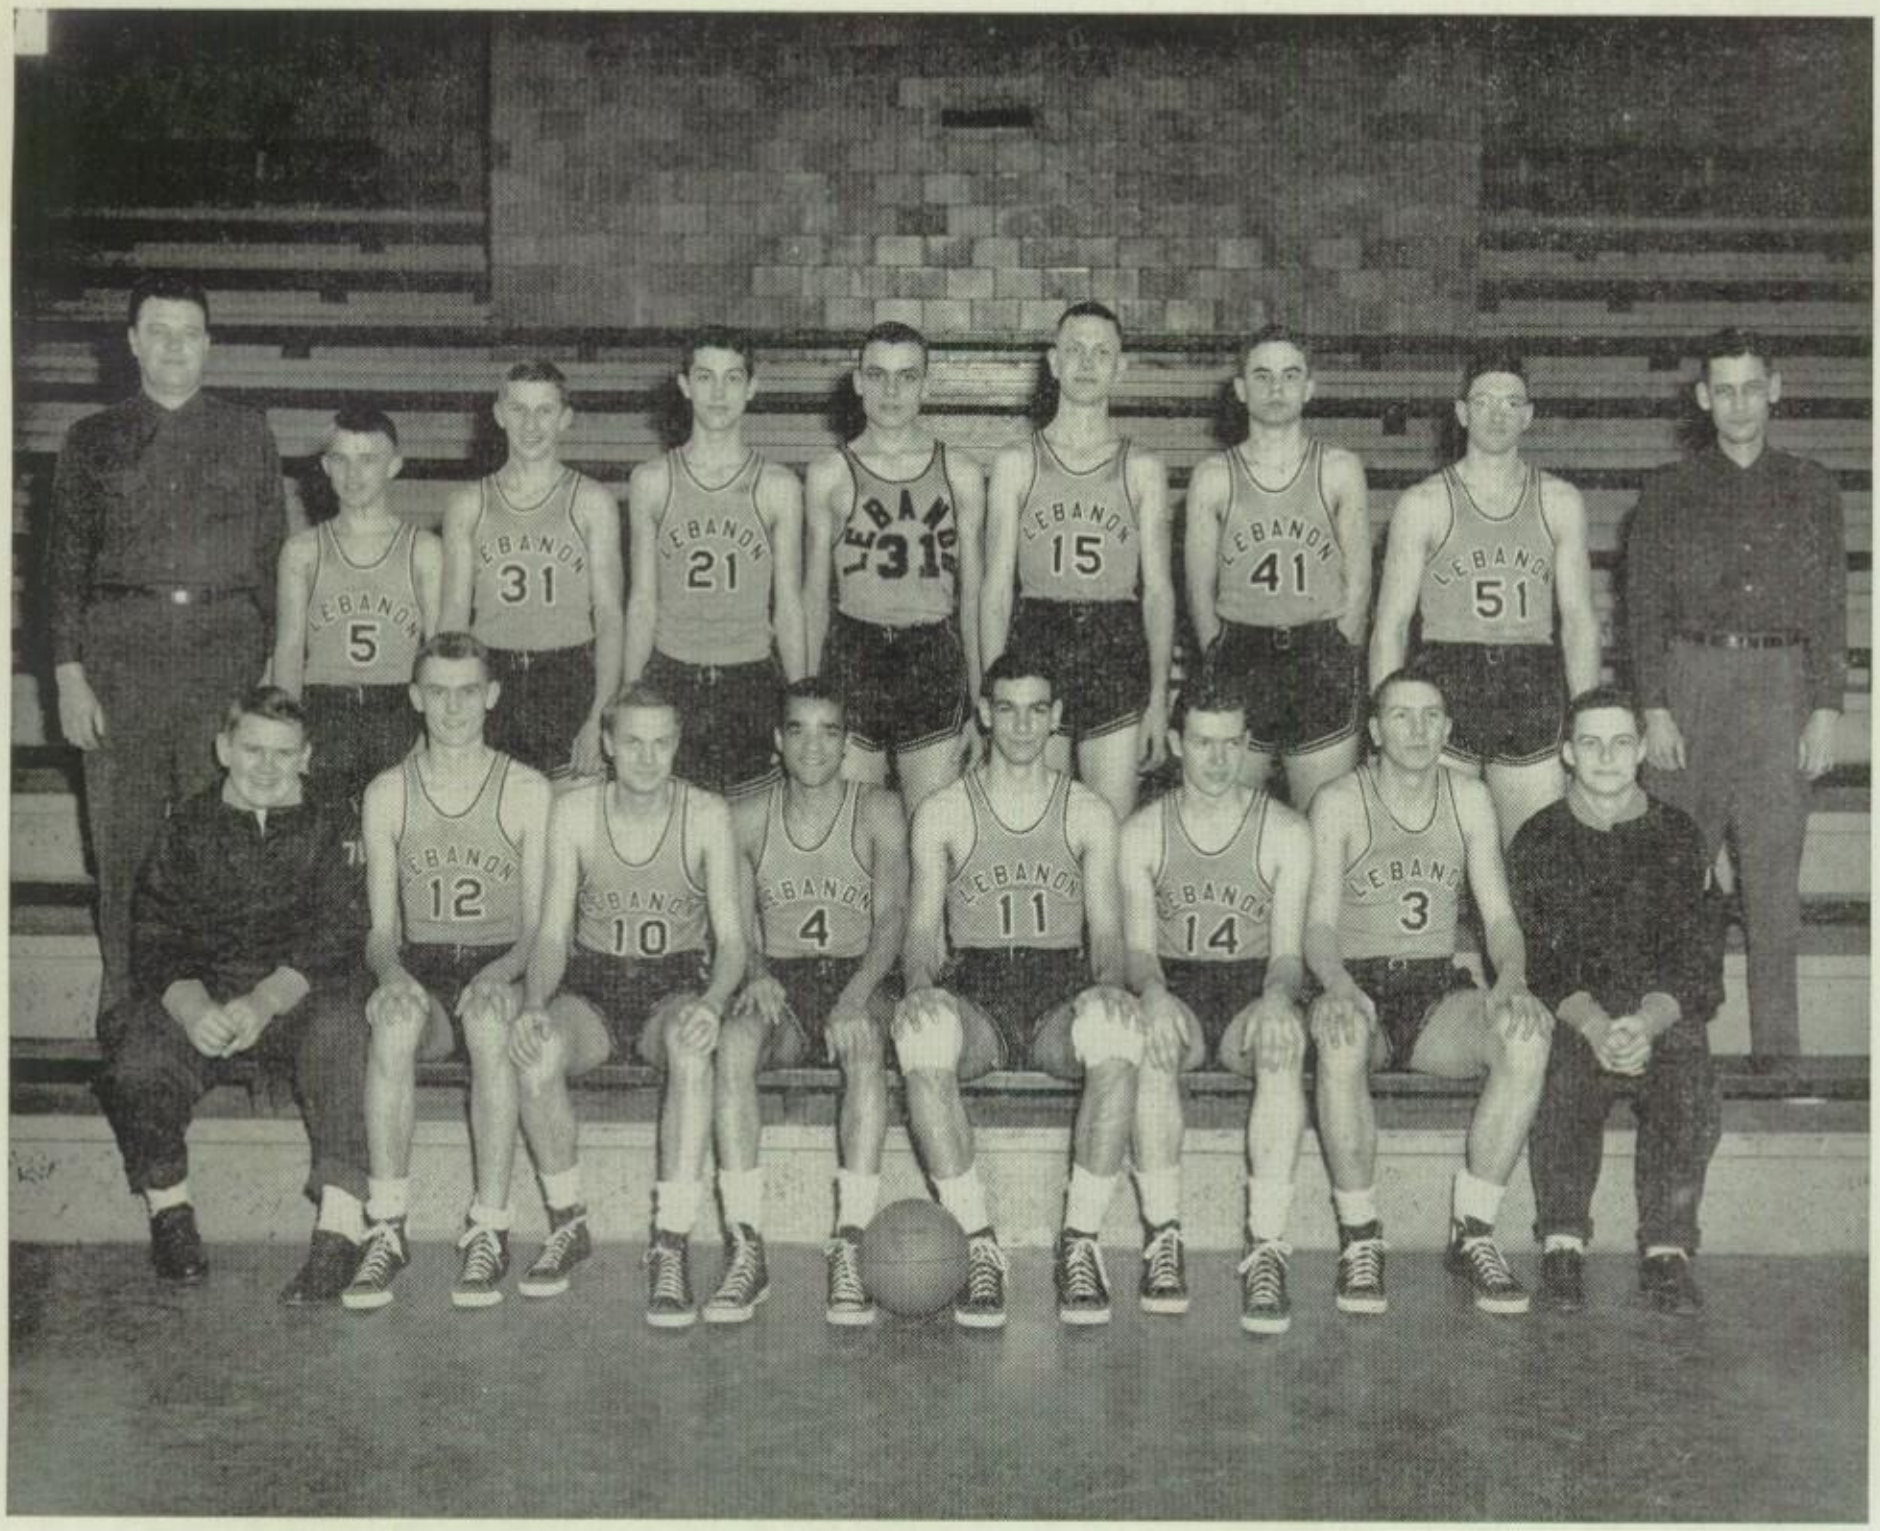
Junior halfback Johnny Linn captured scoring laurels for the Tigers by accumulating 42 points. Johnny also had an excellent 5.4 yards per carry effort. Speaking of per carry averages, however, Gene Fine, a sophomore back, ranks in first place with a remarkable net of 6.3 yards per try. Other scorers were Lloyd Scott, Bob Thrine, Gary Scott, Dave Sherry and Gerald Padgett, a junior, who also kicked the majority of the point-after-touchdown attempts.

Although Lebanon played better than average football throughout the season, they hit their peak in football excellence when Sheridan came to town. Our fine line, composed of such boys as ends Gerald Padgett, Dave Sherry, and Wyman Dickerson, tackles "Fluff" Allen, John Jeffs, and Ross Pauley, guards Arnol Artman and Wayne Downey, and centers Don Borden and Dick Hawkins, held Sheridan and their star, Pete Stafford, almost to a standstill. At the same time these linemen made it possible for our backfield, named above, to get away and score. The blocking, charging, and tackling of our line was outstanding in this game and was excellent throughout the season.

That very important pre-kickoff huddle with last minute instructions from Coach Crawford. Let's go get 'em, gang! Tackle clean and hard . . . rush their passers . . . be alert . . . run those punts back . . . play the game fair and square . . .



We had one or two passes blocked, but we shook Johnny Linn loose for a touchdown run even though most of the opponents seem ready to mob him.



Standing left to right: Assistant Coach Doc Heath, Larry Riggins, Lynn Miller, Don Lambert, Bob Harshman, Aaron Stookey, Harley Sheets, Ross Pauley, and Coach Earl Overman.

Seated: Mgr. John Foster, Gerald Padgett, Jim S hulemire, Steve Scott, Sonny Walker, Dave Shirling, Marshall Sheets, and Mgr. Don Gillihan.

VARSITY BASKETBALL, 1951-52

Starting slow and finishing fast, the Tiger net team compiled a record of 13 wins and 11 losses. Dropping their first four, they proceeded to win 10 of the next 14 regularly scheduled games.

The Tigers were able to defeat Frankfort in their second encounter of the season with the Hot Dogs by a score of 57-41. Some of the action of this game is shown on the opposite page.

Sonny Walker led the Tigers through the season in his final year of play. Sonny's feat of scoring 31 points each on two successive Friday nights will not be forgotten for some time. Marshall Sheets and Gerald Padgett ranked next in the scoring column.

Cooperative team play of the entire Tiger personnel was outstanding this year and their never-give-up spirit, even against tremendous odds, was remarkable. The clean sportsmanship and fighting competitive spirit of this fine squad cannot be praised too highly.

In sectional play Lebanon walked away with Pinnell and then fought a tough one with Thorntown, winning 43-41, and then took the crown by defeating Zionsville 66-49.

In the regional the Tigers met up with a little but very good team who shot only when the range was just right and defeated our Tigers in their afternoon game 56-53. Earl Park, small but mighty, connected with 48% of their goal attempts and thus took our boys out of the 1952 IHSAA tournament. Lafayette Jeff in turn defeated Earl Park for the regional title, 50-45.

BASEBALL

The 1951 edition of the Tiger baseball team, coached by Doc Heath, was undefeated in seven games. This marked the first time in several years that a Tiger nine has marked up an unblemished record.

Starting the perfect season on its way, Lebanon won a close one from Zionsville, 3-2. Then came a 27-3 runaway victory for the Tigers when they traveled to Noblesville. The third win of the season featured a sparkling pitching performance by Lloyd Scott who hurled a no-hit, no-run game against Charlton, winning 5-0. Lebanon's remaining victories were over Noblesville, Westfield, Crawfordsville and Charlton. Freshman pitcher Ray Shaw had a shut-out victory over Noblesville, 8-0.

Kneeling: Mgr. Norman Linton, Harry Allen, Bob Reeves, Charles Jamison, Bob Shinn, Ray Shaw, Wyman Dickerson, Dave Sherry, and Mgr. Ronald Snyder.

Champions in action! Our boys were excellent pitchers, catchers, and fielders, of that there is no doubt as is proven by their perfect season. But when it came the Tigers' turn at bat—how they sparkled then! Our baseball team could slug with the best of them, they were fast base-runners, and they were alert to take advantage of the opportunities offered to them.

TRACK

Handicapped by the fact that they have no home track, the Tigers were unable to make an impressive showing in the five track meets they entered. Coach Earl Overman's trackmen also were hampered by many injuries and illnesses.

In the first meet Charlton won 66¼ to 42¾. Danville, a mid-state powerhouse, took the next meet 82 to 27; Frankfort also won by a similar score, 87 to 22. In a three-way meet at Tipton, Lebanon was nosed out of second place by Tipton by the scant margin of 7/12 of a point.

Sprinter Jim Schulemire was elected captain by the squad. Below are pictured the returning lettermen.
